

Dr. Giora Yaron

Over the past few years, Dr. Yaron has co-founded a group of International based start-ups with primary focus on Data center virtualization and Communication Networks; ExaNet Inc. (www.exanet.com), focused on building Single Entity Scalable Storage Networks, P-cube Inc., focused on Content Based Switching for smart networks (sold to Cisco), PentaCom Ltd., focused on SRP based products (sold to Cisco), Comsys Communication and Signal Processing Ltd (www.comsysmobile.com), focused on WiMax and LTE (landline business sold to Conexant), Prolify Inc. (www.prolify.com) focused on BTO in the data center, Qumranet Inc (www.qumranet.com) focused on virtualizing end to end Desk Top Virtualization solutions and Itamar Medical Ltd (www.itamar-medical.com) focused on a new signal in medicine. Dr. Yaron serves as Chairman of the Boards of these companies.

Dr Yaron served as Chairman of the Board of Mercury Interactive sold to HP for $4.9B, serves as the Chairman of the BOD of Yissum the Technology Transfer company of the Hebrew University and on the Board of Governors and Executive committee of the Hebrew University.

From 1992-1995 Dr. Yaron has served as President of Indigo NV, leading the company to an NASDAQ IPO exceeding $1B in market capitalization. Prior to joining Indigo served as corporate Vice President of National Semiconductor and General Manager of its Israeli operations with worldwide responsibility for its microprocessor business.

Dr. Yaron holds a Ph.D. in Device Physics from the Hebrew University, has published over twenty scientific papers and holds six patents.